

Ballet TUCSON

2023-2024

STEP INTO OUR NEW SEASON

FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Ballet Tucson is reaching new heights with a vision to bring ballet to our community like never before. Through the talent of our artistic leadership and company dancers, the expansion of our performance repertoire, exciting partnerships with treasured local arts organizations, and a world-class school that educates and inspires dancers of all ages, the future of Tucson's only professional ballet company has never been brighter.

I invite you to join us by becoming a Season Subscriber and Ballet Tucson Member today! Each concert of our 2023-2024 Season offers you the opportunity to experience something truly unique, from timeless classics to exciting premieres. Highlights include legendary choreographer George Balanchine's iconic Serenade and the Ballet Tucson premiere of his Divertimento No. 15, another stunning world premiere by Associate Artistic Director and Resident Choreographer Chieko Imada in partnership with the Tucson Desert Song Festival, the classical masterpiece Giselle Act II, and the continuation of our vibrant partnership with the Tucson Symphony Orchestra for our celebrated production of The Nutcracker, made possible by the James H. and Frances R. Allen Family Foundation in loving memory of Kimberlee Allen. I am also thrilled to bring my ballet Lost in Light to the stage, which I created for Pacific Northwest Ballet's 40th Anniversary Season, featuring original music by Tucson Symphony Orchestra Composer-in-Residence Dan Coleman.

Our complete performance season will be announced this summer (stay tuned!), but I encourage you to become a Season Subscriber today to secure the best seats in the house! Add a Membership to your subscription to enhance your enjoyment of our performances. Access exclusive events throughout the season that will better connect you with the ballets and artists you see onstage.

Thank you for your support and I look forward to sharing an inspiring new season with you!

Margaret Mullin, Artistic Director

EXCLUSIVE OPPORTUNITIES FOR MEMBERS

Your gift is an investment in Ballet Tucson and to show our gratitude we invite you beyond the mainstage to bring you closer to the art form that you love.

Watch a company class or studio rehearsal

Experience an up-close and personal look at our artistic process by watching a company class or rehearsal at the Ballet Tucson studios. While seated just a few feet away from the dancers, you will witness how they practice and prepare for our stage productions while hearing insights from Artistic Director Margaret Mullin.

Ballet Banter

Through our Ballet Banter series, you will meet notable guest staggers and choreographers who bring exciting new works to life on our stage. Glimpse behind the curtain through an in-depth conversation with these artists moderated by Artistic Director Margaret Mullin. Ask your questions during the Q&A portion of the event and toast the upcoming performances with fellow Ballet Tucson supporters and company dancers.

Special Events

Receive invitations to exclusive events around Tucson that highlight our company in unique ways, like our recent Ballet in the Desert event in partnership with DeGrazia Gallery in the Sun.

When you add a Membership by making a donation with your Ballet Tucson Season Subscription, every dollar makes a difference in fulfilling our mission of artistic excellence, innovation, and creativity. Annual fund donations provide critical support for Ballet Tucson's work in our school, on our stage, and in our community. Also know you can double your gift due to a generous match from the Connie Hillman Family Foundation! All new and increased gifts will be matched 1:2. Every gift matters - YOU are an essential part of building the future.
